

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Inductive Grammar Chart
(Unit 3, page 30)

GRAMMAR. The passive causative

Look at these examples.

We had our picture taken after the meeting.
They plan to have the offices painted next week.
Can she have her X-rays sent this morning?

FIGURE IT OUT . . .

Complete these grammar rules.

1. Form the passive causative with the appropriate form of get or have + object + a _____ participle.
2. In a passive causative statement, the _____ comes between have or get and the past participle.

Look at these examples.

We had the office painted last week. It looks great.
We're having the office painted by Royal Painting Services. They're the best!

FIGURE IT OUT . . .

Complete this grammar rule.

Use a by phrase when it is _____ to mention the person or group doing the service.

- a. necessary b. no necessary