1. Read the following text: What is personality? By Kramer and Gosling. Look at the annex.
2. Before writing your academic paragraph use brainstorming technique or any graphic organizer in order to identify and prioritize your main ideas. One of your ideas must turn into a topic sentence and its controlling idea. After doing so, choose which one may be your supporting ideas. (Use the other side of the paper, if you need more space).
3. Afterwards you have a clear picture which ideas will form your paragraph, include a hook, and close your paragraph with a closing sentence.
  - 3.1 All of your statements must be joined by using connecting words or linking words.
  - 3.2 Next, do a double check to detect possible mistakes, mainly grammar structures, spelling and uncoherent sentences among others.
  - 3.3 Submit your academic paragraph that summarizes the reading passage in a PDF file. This submission must be on time, and the use of artificial intelligence for this exam is strictly prohibited. Submitting an academic paragraph generated by AI will result in a zero (0/10) on your grade.
