LOCAL HERO RETURNS LOST WALLET

By Community News Staff

Last week, a young man named Lucas made an honest decision that impressed everyone. While walking to the supermarket, he noticed a wallet on the sidewalk.

Inside the wallet, there was money, a driver's license, and several credit cards. Lucas didn't think twice—he took the wallet to the nearest police station.

The next day, the wallet's owner contacted Lucas and thanked him warmly. "I just did what I think is right," Lucas said. His honesty reminded us all how important our values are.

TEEN VOLUNTEER BRINGS KINDNESS TO HER NEIGHBOR

By Neighborhood Times

Sara, a teenager from the local community, spends her Saturdays helping her elderly neighbor, Mrs. Ortega.

Mrs. Ortega has trouble walking and lives alone. Sara helps clean her home, buys groceries, and picks up medicine from the pharmacy. She never asks for money.

"I do it because it feels good," says Sara. "Kindness and respect are important to me." Her quiet generosity sets a great example for young people everywhere.

STUDENT SHOWS TRUE TEAM SPIRIT AT SCHOOL

By School Life Weekly

At Rivera High School, a group project became a lesson in values this week. Tom, a student in Grade 8, worked with his classmates on a science project. But one group member, Diego, forgot to finish his part.

Instead of getting angry, Tom stayed calm. He said, "Let's just finish it together." Thanks to Tom's attitude, the team completed the project on time.

Their teacher praised the group for showing teamwork, fairness, and patience. "Tom is a great example of leadership," she said.
